Almeida Garrett

A journey through his life and work

The start of our tour is in the Largo de Misericórdia, more commonly known as the Largo de São Roque, across from the Bairro Alto. On this tour of around 3 hours we will visit the beauty of Lisbon from viewpoints, the typical character of the Bairro Alto and the cosmopolitan nature of the Chiado. This tour is the point of departure for a chronological succession of writers among our anthology that enlightened, such as Fernando Pessoa. This tour is about the most important romantic figure in Portuguese literature, Almeida Garrett. We will mention his many facets: literature, journalism, theater, military, education and politics. We will examine the life of this versatile writer and discover the places where he lived, where he wrote, where he socialized and the places that he helped create. We will finish our tour in the central square of the Rossio.
