Os Maias

Lisbon of Eça de Queirós

This itinerary starts at Cais do Sodré next to the train station. From here we spend 2 to 3 hours visiting the most cosmopolitan areas of Lisbon during the 19th century, the stage for the action in the work “Os Maias”. Since Eça de Queirós was a Realist writer, today we are still able to recognize the majority of the locations mentioned by him whether in the area of Cais do Sodré, or the Chiado or in the Rossio, the place where our tour ends.

Episodes such as the first time that Carlos meets Maria Eduarda, the literary soirée, the gathering of friends and, passing from fiction to the reality of the Conferências do Casino, will be mentioned among others. This is an excellent excuse to recall or once again read the book of our lives.
